KrisTom Rape Expulsion & SydneyOliviaTurner Is A Rapist Too

"TLDR; Sydney Olivia Turner [BA '23 MA '24 MSL '26] did not provide her official report from Western University, so I'll give you my witness article.... instead."

"KRIS TOM is a rapist who was first suspended from his institution. Then, expelled from his Western University. So... ask Western btw. Btw, Kris Tom was, and will always be, a parasitic being." {btw, 'twas always juan }

"Sydney Olivia Turner [BA '23 MA '24 MSL '26 -> according to her btw] is a rapist as well. But she raped... me. But she was raped by Kris Tom first. That one happened in July 2023. Mine, as in her raping me out of my sleep, happened in Sept' 2023. It's only getting weirder... 'cuz she might have done it, again...."

"But first. My colleagues from Western USC {real intern gyaldem} & my boy {Fernando T.} danced with me at Joe Kool's (a club that previously enabled rapists like Kris Tom). I also 'danced' with Sydney Olivia Turner, where she was being manipulated, while manipulating me, all at the same time. Sydney was being dragged around by Kris Tom, and although he was definitely sus, she allowed it. Brampton ting... innit bruv. He was running his own 'genjutsu' on her, while she was running her's (on me). She tried inviting me to her home. But I, instead, took my boy home (to Pines-). Then, she went to Kris Tom's home instead -- in London (ON) at the time. You can ask her the rape details, 'cuz it's not my place. Or home, if she wants to be literal wit'it. Then, I chilled with my boy and drank a lot. She texted me later. Then, I was at work. Sydney & I had already started texting, but I did not know any details, of the sorts, if y'kno'm'sayin' bruv... but I had already started liking her 'genjutsu' from the start of the internship work term. [btw, i made websites and designs-ish lol. plus, customer support ofc (tech guy).] We started dating {IT department}, as in Syd & I, on August 18th, 2023 {Saggu's bday}. Here's the quick montage: She raped me. As in, stuck her nails into my penis hole {while she tampered evidence later} while I was sleeping. I woke up in shock, and remembered it... but didn't bring it up until October 24, 2025 {for Kobe}. She was, contractually, a pedophile to me during our shared work experience at Western USC. Literally, she was not allowed to date a student, but she did. Quite the 'genjutsu' I guess...?"

"I spent nearly $2000 on her DoorDash alone... and sum. That was after she got me fired from the work environment, contractually. Dropping the stats, btw... on her UberMeats."

Timeline	Amount

"She stuck her  -y fingers into my asshole. I barely consented and regretted instantly, to which she persisted with her raping of me. And, to which, she yelled at me for, after. I still feel the triggers. Which is interesting, because she wrote about triggers for her Master's thesis. I would've preferred to not have been coerced into the act, considering she was willing to ruin my internship work term... which she succeeded with anyway. Read above if missed. Also, I did eat her ass and she really liked it. However, I did not like it, as she did not anally douche. So I guess, I tried doing it for her... coercion?"

"For those that care about this: during my relationship with Sydney Olivia Turner, I observed that she was a gaslighting, manipulating, deflecting, minimizing, cheating, and strangely abusive girlfriend. From my experience, she was dogshit. But she spent the first 9 months dating me, and the next 9 months coercing me into being a friend in the shadows , if y'kno'm'sayin' bruv. 18 Months, Calvin Harris {Honestly, Nevermind}"

"I was always a sweeterman, according to, well... friends I've made along the way, who actually knew me. But I have mental health issues, too. so... s/o mental illness. on the record btw."

"Syd & I went to Daniel Caesar and Ski Mask concerts. She posted pics on her IG without me. If she wants to divulge her IG, she probably will anyway."

"TLDR II; Kris Tom & Sydney Olivia Turner are both rapists. Simple: Kris Tom was expelled from Western University and returns to Sri Lanka now. Sydney Olivia Turner remains studying. Although, she might have lost some documents...?"

"Kris Tom and Sydney Olivia Turner, from my literal witnessing, performed a pattern of predatory behaviour. Their behaviours were institutionalized by Western University at the time. I think we need less silence for that. From survivors. And the institution, itself. Less stigma, of course."

"Anyway, thanks to my community, as well as my experience... I hope I have reclaimed my power. For I have told the truth on this. Kris Tom and Sydney Olivia Turner, are rapists -- those of university communities. Kris, officially... of course. In the meantime, Syd... tough to divulge."

"2 My Sisters & Brothers."
